

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

December 14, 1914.

To His Excellency John K. Tener, Governor of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg.

Sir: I have the honor to submit herewith the Report of the State Librarian for the year ending December 1, 1914.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS L. MONTGOMERY,

State Librarian.

STATE LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

During the year ending December 1, 1914, four thousand one hundred and sixty-four volumes were purchased for the State Library. The exchanges amounted to one thousand one hundred and fifty-five, and the gifts to two hundred and seventy-six volumes. The items included under Pennsylvaniana amounted to four hundred and sixty-two.

During the year, 10,906 volumes were accessioned; and the total accessions to date are 155,975 volumes.

The usefulness of the Institution to the public has been demonstrated by a larger attendance than in any previous year, and about one hundred volumes a day are sent out for home use. It is gratifying to note that those who have come to Harrisburg to pursue special lines of research have invariably expressed their gratification over the results of their visits, and have testified to the willingness of the Library force to assist in their researches, and also as to the total absence of "red tape" in the Institution.

The use of the photostat in reproducing material of value, both for the collections of the State and for students who are unable to come to Harrisburg or who wish such material for publication, has been most gratifying. Rare material has even been sent from European libraries in order that it might be reproduced for the benefit of Pennsylvania scholars. The only known copy of Menno Simon's "Fondament" was reproduced in this way for the Society of Mennonites, who testified that a number of important new facts have been established through the possession of this material.

The Librarian has delivered addresses during the year as follows:

January 1. "Educational Value of Free Libraries." Opening of Harrisburg Public Library.

January 28. Spoke on "Books and the Farm." State Board of Agriculture.

February 4. "County Societies and the Federation." Carbon County Historical Society, Mauch Chunk.

March 23. "State Library and Its Resources," for Boy Scouts.

April 1. "The Library," before Pratt Institute Library Class.

May 8. "The Historical Activities of the State." Western Pennsylvania Historical Society dinner, Pittsburgh.

May 25. "Relation of the State Library to the Other Educational Functions of the Government," before League of Library Commissions, Washington, D. C.

May 29. "The Trustee and Legislation." A. L. A., Washington, D. C.

June 30. "Librarians and Their Work." State College.

August 3. "The Historical Commission." Enoch Brown Memorial Association meeting, near Greencastle, Pa.

September 12. "Contrasts." Turkey Foot Association, Confluence.

October 8. "Historic Mansions." Daughters of 1812, Harrisburg.

October 10. "The Commission and Its Work." Washington, Pa.

October 29. "The Commission and Its Work." Ft. McCord Monument Unveiling.

November 19. "Educational Importance of the Free Library." Mt. Union.

November 24. "Some Historic Houses." Western Pennsylvania Historical Society, Pittsburgh.

In the Division of Public Records the Chester County Papers, in 23 volumes, have been completed, as also the Lancaster County Papers, in 34 volumes. Fourteen more volumes of the Provincial Papers have been indexed.

The receipts from certificates amounted to $284.60, and 1,106 letters on historical subjects have been received and answered.

In the State Museum there are over 200 exhibits of school work in the Educational Division and over 200 exhibits of homes, libraries, public baths, playgrounds, and hospitals. Some 27 institutions have sent in exhibits during the year. The number of slides circulated was 59,765 between December 1, 1913, and May 1st, 1914. The slides were then removed from circulation until December 1st, in order that they might be thoroughly classified and catalogued. There are 18,717 slides in the collection. Two hundred zoological specimens have been donated during the year.

In the last report attention was called to the limitations of the building for the rapidly growing collections of the State.

The need for extra space does not apply only to the exhibits but to the actual housing of the tremendous number of bulky volumes which are annually added to the collection. It would be well for the Legislature to consider the feasibility of following the example set by the State of New York in furnishing ample quarters in a new building for the Library and Museum, and other educational interests; or, better still, to build an adequate up-to-date Library on some part of the Park Extension. The present building could then furnish much needed offices for other Departments of the State's activities. This building was not designed with what might be called library intelligence, and there is no space which can be devoted to a proper reading-room away from the noisy routine of the circulating desk with its jangling telephones and rapping typewriters. If a contrast be desired a visit to the present State Library followed by a journey to Madison, Wisconsin, would furnish one which would convince the most callous mind of the necessity of such a step. The State of Connecticut, too, has lately erected a beautiful building for the preservation of its literature and records.

In the work throughout the State conducted by the Free Library Commission visits have been made to 159 libraries, 8 new libraries have been organized and eight old ones reorganized. Nine meetings of library workers have been held in different parts of the State. Fifty conferences were held with Library Trustees and public gatherings. A class for library workers was organized in connection with the Summer School at State College some years ago, and this class was attended last Summer by 17 pupils. Libraries were opened to the public at Albion, Clarion, Columbia, Downingtown, Ellwood City, Galeton, Harrisburg, Pottstown and Somerset. Seventeen thousand seven hundred volumes were sent out to 325 places and 1,417 volumes were loaned to Study Clubs, and many single volumes were sent to individuals.

The most important gifts to libraries of Pennsylvania during the year were:

Alexander Memorial Public Library, $25,000 from the late William H. Wolverton.

Grove City Carnegie Library, $2,500 for books.

Conshohocken Free Library, $2,500 from J. Elwood.

The Lancaster A. Herr Smith Library, $2,500 from James Landis.

The Lock Haven Library receives $20,000 from William Kiester.

The City Institute Free Library of Philadelphia received two legacies,—$5,000, from Mrs. A. P. Samuels and Rebecca L. Bringham; and $3,000 and 1,600 books from Dr. Lewis Duhring.

Pottsville Public Library, $6,000 for building site.

Warren Library Association, building in memory of L. D. Wetmore, $100,000, from Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henry and Mrs. J. P. Jefferson.

West Chester Library Association $1,000 from Miss Gorgas.

There were also a large number of small gifts.

Three hundred and eighty-five dollars and thirty-eight cents was sent to the State Treasurer as the sum received for expressage and loss of books.
